

During our Wider curriculum lessons, children have been learning about the Romans and Celts.

They have produced some amazing work, including sketches of Boudicca, the Celtic Queen.

In our PE lessons we have been learning about tagging and passing in rugby.

In Writing lessons, we have continued focusing on the Romans. Children have learned about Spartacus and have produced amazing reports, play scripts and narratives.

November

